Nominations for Citizen of the Year

The Woodward Chamber of Commerce is now taking nominations for Citizen of the Year.

The award will be presented to a Woodward area citizen based on the following criteria:

- Volunteer service to the Woodward community and area. Volunteer services are considered to be civic enterprises which are non-work related and non-paid.
- Accomplishments in city and area betterment.
- Character
- Civic Leadership
- Personal accomplishments in business, family church and school.

The annual award will be presented during the Chamber's Annual Meeting later in the year. Nomination forms are available at the Chamber office and must be returned to the Chamber no later than Wednesday, December 30, 2020.

UnHitch the Wagon

TOBY ROWLAND

Behind the microphone at University of Oklahoma sporting events, Toby Rowland is the two-time Emmy Award winning Voice of the Sooners! His enthusiastic and unique style is unmistakable and popular with Crimson and Cream fans. He is the host of "T-Row in the Morning Show" on the SportsTalk Radio Network and has hosted numerous television and radio shows for Sooner Sports TV, Fox Sports Oklahoma and the Sooner Radio Network. Unhitch the Wagon, The Story of Boomer and Sooner is Toby's first book, but his writing is already treasured by OU fans through his beloved "Scenesetters" before every Sooner football game. Toby lives in Piedmont, Oklahoma, with his wife, Jenni, and their three children, Trevor, Payton and Chloe.
