Taste Of WOODWARD VI March 21st, 2022

WOODWARD CONFERENCE CENTER
THE TASTE 5:30 P.M. - AWARDS 6:30 P.M.

FEATURING OKLAHOMA'S OWN KELLY OGLE

Kelly Ogle

Kelly Ogle started at News 9 in October 1990. During his years with News 9, Ogle has been the recipient of many prestigious awards, including Best Anchor from the National Academy of Television Journalists in 1999 and the Edward R. Murrow Award for coverage of the 2009 "Oklahoma Tornadoes".

Ogle's investigative reports have been recognized as the best in the field by the Society of Professional Journalists in 1994 and the Oklahoma Associated Press in 1996. During his "You Paid For It" reports, Ogle chronicled wasteful spending of taxpayers' dollars by Oklahoma state government. He also anchored News 9's award-winning coverage of the Timothy McVeigh trial.

Ogle is a graduate of Oklahoma State University with a bachelor's degree in journalism and a minor in political science. He is the son of the late Jack Ogle, one of Oklahoma's most famous broadcast journalists and member of the Oklahoma Journalism Hall of Fame. His two brothers also work in Oklahoma's broadcast industry.

Ogle considers his family his best work. He and his wife have four children, all named after Oklahoma towns, and is best known as "Pops" to his grandchildren. In 2001, Ogle was honored with the Don Bodard Friend of Youth Award for "Kelly's Kids." Ogle is also an avid golfer, woodworker and yardman.
