AUGUST MONTHLY LUNCHEON

*August 8th
11:45 a.m.*

Woodward Conference Center

Speaker

Grant Gower - OSSAA Director of Officials

Grant Gower joined The Oklahoma Secondary School Activities Association as the director in charge of officials and baseball championships in July 2019.

Gower attended Tecumseh High School where he was the Valedictorian, Student Council President and played football, basketball and baseball.

He attended Oklahoma Baptist University on a baseball scholarship and was a 4 year starter.

He is Deer Creek High School's all-time winningest football coach. He went 57-32 before leaving in 2016 to join OBU's staff. He also coached at Putnam West, Perry and Olive.

Before coming to the association, Gower spent four seasons as Oklahoma Baptist University's offensive coordinator. Gower officiated high school basketball for 24 years and college basketball for 16 years, all while becoming a prominent high school football and baseball coach.

As a baseball coach, he compiled nearly 300 wins. Gower oversees officials in every sport. Gower has been married to his wife Paula for 35 years. They have 3 children and 3 grandchildren.
