Bob Fenimore Day Take Two

Chad Weiberg assumed the role of Oklahoma State Vice President and Athletic Director in July of 2021 after having spent the previous four years serving as OSU's Deputy Athletic Director. In his role, Weiberg serves on President Kayse Shrum's leadership team, which helps advance Oklahoma State's land grant mission and President Shrum's strategic initiatives for the institution.

Since moving into the AD chair, Weiberg has announced OSU Athletics' Vision Plan, which will affect every athlete on campus, led OSU into the NIL era by establishing partnerships across campus and throughout the state, launched the Cowboy VIP program for the department's highest levels of giving, formed the Student-Athlete Development division of OSU Athletics, reinitiated the OSU Athletics Hall of Honor and helped lead Oklahoma State through the continuing turmoil of conference realignment.

As OSU's Deputy Athletic Director, Weiberg conceived and put into place a new partnership between OSU Athletics and the university's Center For Health Sciences further strengthen the mental and physical care and well-being of Oklahoma State's student-athletes.

Prior to returning to OSU, Weiberg spent two years as the deputy athletic director at Texas Tech. He also spent 2004-2015 at Kansas State in various roles, including director of major gifts and associate athletic director for development. In 2014 he was recognized as the national fundraiser of the year by the National Association of Athletic Development Directors.

Weiberg is a 1994 OSU graduate with a degree in business administration. He earned an MBA from OSU in 2002. His early career path included stints with the OSU Alumni Association and Foundation.

Chad and his wife, Jodi, have two children: Ella and Grant.
